PRESIDENT’S REPORT – DOUG GEEN: Well, Irma has come and gone and, hopefully, now our anxieties can return to a more normal level. Aren't we so lucky that our Park - and those of our neighbors - survived this horrendous storm with only minimal damage? For our full- time residents it must have been a harrowing experience having to leave or hunker down nearby while Irma passed through. For the snowbirds it was also a high stress time, hoping that there would still be a Park and home to return to. Repairs are already underway for some of the damage. In this vein I wish to advise that it has been discovered that a couple of homes in the Park have actually been shifted on their foundation. While not visually noticeable at first, this was discovered on closer inspection. Please make sure your home is carefully looked at.

Looking forward to seeing you soon.

RULES AND REGULATIONS: If you have a comment, suggestion or complaint, there are forms in the clubhouse for that purpose. Unless this information is put in writing, the Co-op Board is unable to pursue the issue.

INFORMATION & THANK YOUs

PARK DIRECTORY: Our new 2017/2018 Directory is available to be picked up in the office.

THANK YOU: I would like to thank the Terra Ceia board for the flowers and the Recreation Board for our fruit bowl they sen; it was very appreciated. We would also like to thank each and everyone in the park for all the food and prayers they have sent our way; they too have been very helpful to both of us. I am well on the mend and looking forward to being back in the Office working for the good of our Park. Thank you again from the bottom of our hearts.

The OHIO REUNION was held on August 16 at Tony's in Findlay. We had a total of 33 people from Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana. Since Jim and Judy Glanz are no longer residents of the Park, they have turned over the reins to Mary Turner and her siblings. Next year's reunion should be as good as usual!

BID EUCHRE and POKER is started back up this Thursday evening, September 28th.

REGULAR EUCHRE will be starting at a later date.
