PRESIDENT'S REPORT – DOUG GEEN:

I hope all of our full-time residents are surviving the wet weather being experienced at Terra Ceia. Susan Bradshaw will be filling in for Rhonda from June until September. She will have the same hours of Monday, Wednesday & Friday 8 a.m. until noon. If you get a chance please pop in and welcome Susan to our park. We wish Dave & Rhonda a great holiday up north.

TREASURER'S REPORT – NORM KURTZ:

- We had a positive cash flow in April.
- Total year to date income is on budget.
- Total year to date expenses were favorable to budget.
- Total Operating Income/ (Loss) is favorable to budget.
- There were no payments made to Park Betterments and/or Major Improvements during April.

You are always welcome and encouraged to review any of the financials and I would be happy to answer any questions you may have.

INFORMATION & THANK YOUs

PARK DIRECTORY: Any changes in the directory will be printed in this section of the newsletter. Please make the following changes to the new directory: Unit 368, Jon & Gayle Kleck, 313-316-9743.

PLEASE NOTE: Theresa Chase in Unit #137 would like people to give her any plant pots that they are not using. She is looking for small or medium pots. She is working on starting plants for the Garden Club. Her phone number is 941-224-0918.

LOVE & PRAYERS

Please remember the following residents in your prayers: Joyce Frank, Unit 433; Ken Donaldson, Unit 133.

JOHN REIHL, UNIT 130 – has been experiencing an increase in pain throughout his body. He had an MRI which indicated several small tumors, although his cancer is controlled. He will begin a series of radiation injections once a month for a period of six months.

DONALD GORDON, UNIT 232 – We extend our sincere sympathy to Joanne and family on the passing of Donald during the month of May.

GENE HODGES, UNIT 452 – We send our sympathy and best wishes to Gene's family and friends on his passing during the month of May.

CAROL HAWKINS, UNIT 464 – moved from rehab to her home on May 20. She continues to gain strength and is hoping to go home to New York in early July through September.

DENNY KRONE, UNIT 467 – spent three days in the hospital in May due to congestive heart failure. After having 10 pounds of fluid removed, he is very weak and recuperating at home. His Alzheimer's is progressing slowly.
